ABOUT THE SMITH FAMILY

The Smith Family is a national children's education charity that works with children and young people to overcome educational inequality caused by poverty – so they can thrive now and into their futures.

Every child should have the opportunity to change their future. But for 1.2 million young Australians<sup>1</sup>, poverty stands in the way.

Through no fault of their own, children growing up in disadvantage face daily challenges that can prevent them from achieving all they're capable of.

We believe that education is one of the most powerful change agents, and we help young Australians to create better futures for themselves.

HOW WE HELP

Learning for Life is The Smith Family's core program. It provides young Australians in need with long-term educational support in three ways. Each child on the program receives financial support for school essentials, like uniforms and books; personal support for the child and their family; and practical support through our extra learning and mentoring programs.

This proven combination of financial, personal and practical support empowers young people to harness education and build skills to unlock their true potential.

It's a hand up not a handout.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT
for education essentials,
like uniforms and books

PERSONAL SUPPORT
for the child
and their family

PRACTICAL SUPPORT
through our extra learning and mentoring programs

WORKPLACE GIVING

Making small, regular donations to The Smith Family through Workplace Giving provides an easy way for you to help change the lives of young Australians impacted by poverty.

You're in control of how much you give from each pay, and your donations are pre-tax, reducing your taxable income. It's also worth asking your employer if they match employee donations, as if they do, you'll double your impact!

"Being able to help support children in need to receive the education they deserve is a rewarding feeling, and the Workplace Giving program has made it super easy to sponsor a child. By receiving updates from your sponsored child, you can see first-hand how your donations can bring positive change."

TWO WAYS YOU CAN GIVE

DONATE EACH PAY

Simply choose to donate a nominated amount from each pay to support children's learning.

- $5 can provide a pack of coloured pencils to help nurture a child's creativity.
- $10 can provide a child with headphones to engage in online learning from home.
- $15 can provide a calculator to help a child develop their numeracy skills.
- $25 can provide a literacy resource pack, so parents can help improve their child's reading skills.

SPONSOR A CHILD

For just $58 per month, you can sponsor the education of an individual child in need.

As a Smith Family sponsor, you'll be providing an Australian child in need with the vital tools, resources and support they need to succeed in their education. With school books, money for excursions and other learning essentials, your sponsored child can access the same opportunities as their classmates. And having the basics, such as uniforms and school shoes, will help them fit in and feel like they belong.

One of the wonderful benefits of sponsorship is that you receive student profiles from your sponsored child, with information like their interests and favourite subjects. You'll also have the opportunity to write to them, send birthday cards and more.

To find out if your workplace offers the child sponsorship option, simply contact your Workplace Giving Coordinator or Payroll Office.
