Start the New Year off right
Join us at this Month's Aspley VIEW Club Luncheon for the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
Election of Committee Members will be followed by Trivial Pursuit – raffles, books and trade tables will be available.
Theme/Dress Colours: Australia Day/Australia Day Colours

Our Speaker for February will be Sister Louise Cleary (a Brigidine Sister) Australian President of ACRATH (Australian Catholic Religious Against Trafficking in Humans)

Louise's work has been predominantly in education at all levels, significantly working in areas of disadvantage. Her experiences have given her a passion for addressing injustice. ACRATH aims to educate about, and address, the changing dimensions of human trafficking and modern slavery; sham marriages, domestic servitude, labour trafficking, forced marriage and trafficking for prostitution. Louise will share with us some of the most beautiful and most painful experiences during her work and accompaniment to women – children victims and survivors of trafficking or vulnerable people at risk of being trafficked.
