PRESIDENT'S REPORT

CAKE STALL.....GARDEN PARTY.....GIANT TRADING TABLE.....CHRISTMAS PARTY

One down three to go! Thanks to all the members for making our recent Cake Stall such a success. As a club we will decide how the funds will be allocated. (October meeting).

Work is well and truly underway for both our Garden Party (October) and our Giant Trading Table Meeting (November). We are extending an invitation for members to bring a friend to that day - we will be having a shortened meeting focusing on VIEW specific issues. Please offer assistance or contribute to these two fun events either through raffle donations or produce to sell.

A lot of effort goes into making these events successful, but it requires active participation from all club members.

PLEASE SIGN UP AND PARTICIPATE

Lastly, I hope members were not too severely hit by the recent storms and extreme weather conditions. Please let your committee know if you need some assistance / TLC / someone to chat with. This also goes for members who may be unwell or have a family member who is requiring extra care - please reach out to each other for support.

COMMITTEE 2025

Members are urged to consider nominating for a position on the Club Committee for 2025. We have many opportunities for you to actively participate in helping to ensure the SPVIEW is a happy and vibrant club. Our structure provides 10 positions with Assistant roles being a great way to "learn the ropes" and "share the load". Examples of two positions are below.

RESPONSIBILITIES & GUIDELINES

SECRETARY/ASSISTANT SECRETARY

It is up to the Club Secretary and Assistant Secretary to allocate the tasks between them. These tasks involve the following:

- Communication with the National Office/mail/email/links
- Complete meeting agendas/minutes/distribute to required members through email
- Follow the guidelines as set by VIEW-agenda format/minutes format.
- Maintain lists of apologies/mail received/mail sent.
- Maintain members details and inform the National Office.
- Adhere to the set dates from VIEW

- Work closely with the Treasurer to ensure new members are processed correctly and all records are up to date.
- Maintain a petty cash float for the purchase of admin items and cover running costs.

Please see Robyn if you wish to ask more detailed questions or review p39/40 of the VIEW Handbook.

CLUB NEWS

Learning for Life Program – Ros & Naomi

It has been a quiet month for correspondence with the LFL students. There has been no correspondence received or sent this month relating to the 5 students I write to: Paige, Izayah, Jenny, Bor and Alice. I usually aim to write to them all every 3 months or so to encourage them. I try to connect with them by asking questions and referring to topics which may be of interest to them.

Naomi G, LFL Coordinator

Delegate’s Report – September

The VIEW Mission states that...’As a leading voice and valued support network for women VIEW actively raises awareness of, and participates in, the work of The Smith Family.’ One way we can do this is through the ‘VIEW Resolution process’ which invites members to think about and discuss social issues particularly as they affect women, children and families.

Resolutions that were voted on last year dealt with the prevalence of sports betting, inequity in access to digital resources and the need for more homelessness funding.

If anyone has a particular issue of concern that our club could investigate, please let me know and I will explain more about the ‘process’ at our next meeting.

Your Delegate, Ruth R.

Welfare Report – Claire A./Mandy K.

All members would have received an updated members list. Mandy is currently making further modifications that will allow you to TAG names of members who are happy to be designated drivers to events. Plus SHE WILL TAG NAMES AND ROLES that people have in the club so you can contact the most appropriate member. There will be copies of this available at the next meeting.

CLUB MEMBER DATES & ACTIVITIES

SEPTEMBER PROGRAM OFFICERS' REPORT

Welcome to our September Program Officers' report.

We are finally officially into Spring. We hope you have all survived the punishing winds of the past week. I think we are all well and truly over Winter and are eagerly anticipating some lovely sunny days ahead.

We finished off winter with what was by all accounts a very successful Combined Clubs Luncheon in Hastings, and an enjoyable lunch at the Pig and Whistle.

We also had another exceptional fundraising day at Bunnings. A huge shoutout to all of our bakers and helpers. You are all amazing, and collectively contributed to more than $1500 raised for our club. Not a bad effort for a Saturday morning!

Things will start ramping up now as we freefall towards the end of the year.

Our speaker this month is Simran Kaur, who will be talking to us about the Aged Care Volunteer Visitor Scheme.

Our movie date this month is 'Thelma', 12.45 on Monday the 9th. See Jane's email for details.

Just a couple of heads up to add to your diary:

Our walking group will recommence next month on the 7th October, 9.30am at Rye Pier. We walk towards Rosebud for 30 minutes, then turn around and walk back. Starting points then rotate through Rosebud, McCrae then Dromana. Optional coffees afterwards, doggo's welcome.

Next month's speaker will be John Howell, author of 'The Only Woman at Gallipoli'.

Our much-anticipated Garden Party will this year be held at Vicki's home in Rye on the 24th of October, further details to come.

And finally, the Mordialloc View Club are holding their annual Oaks Day event, which is their main fundraiser for the year, on Thursday the 7th of November. Several of us have attended this function in the past and it is a great day with multiple raffles, sweeps on every race, fashions on the field and more. If anyone is interested, please approach one of the committee members for details.

That's all folks,
Cheers, your Program Officers,
Laila, Jane and Delwyn

Our October Speaker John Howell.

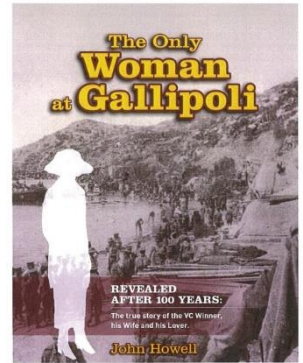

John Howell is a retired engineer and lives in eastern Melbourne with his lovely wife Lia. They have grown-up children and a brood of grandchildren. Retirement has given John and Lia time to travel. This has included a four-month drive from their home to Ningaloo Reef, and living for three months in a small hill-top village in Italy. A passion for scuba diving on shipwrecks led him to maritime history and then military history, and an urge to discover and write.

'The Only Woman at Gallipoli' is his first book. It is a mystery story but also a true story and emerged from a snippet that he read – a scrap of a story so fascinating that it started a long search. The search became a voyage of discovery – from Australian libraries to Turkey, and unseen diaries and love letters in London and Northern England.

The story was unearthed over five years, as he found and assembled pieces of an amazing jigsaw puzzle without knowing until the end that the final picture would look so good. While it is set in a time of war, it more a story of some real and amazing people. There are some tales of battle, but there are poems and love letters too.

"Who is this sitting between Winston Churchill and Lawrence of Arabia? Is it The Only Woman at Gallipoli?"

TRADING TABLE

There will be a Trading Table at our next meeting, so bring along your as new/saleable items to the September 12th General Meeting. Tricia, Linda and Carolyn will be manning the table. Remember to take your items home with you, if they do not sell.

Fund Raising Event- THE GIANT TRADING TABLE DAY

Please see Pat Michal if you are prepared to volunteer time to run a table OR are prepared to offer produce for sale. She will be providing more details at our general meeting and if you have empty jars to donate please bring them along to the next 2 meetings.

Jude R. has found some great ideas for presenting your wrapped baked items for the Big Trading Table Day. Try these ideas or check them out for yourself on Pinterest.

Do remember to list your ingredients on the description label.

Ensure your goods are fully wrapped.
